

Sahyog care for you provide adult literacy classes to women and girls through its vocational centres in Delhi/NCR. The aim of this program is to strengthen community women in lead role in society and convert them into a SHG group to support their livelihoods.

In this continuation Sahyog joint hands with Project Akshar (Students of Delhi University) to hold up livelihood option for the women of SHG groups.

The machines of copy binding has been established in one of our BSES vocational centre from the help of project Akshar. Through machines, women of SHG members are engaged in a livelihood option.
